

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 26, 2023

The Organization of MISO States, Inc. Elects 2024 Officers & Creates David Carr Award

Gulfport, MS – The Organization of MISO States (OMS) Board of Directors elected its 2024 leadership at its annual meeting in Gulfport, Mississippi. The board also created an award in honor of David Carr, a former Mississippi staff member and an active OMS contributor who passed away last December.

The officers for 2024 are:

- President: Tyler Huebner, Wisconsin
- Vice-President: Josh Byrnes, Iowa
- Secretary: Michael Carrigan, Illinois
- Treasurer: Joseph Sullivan, Minnesota
- At-Large: Lori Cobos, Texas
- Past President: Dan Scripps, Michigan

The terms for the officers begin January 1, 2024.

The first annual David Carr Award for Outstanding Staff Contributions was given to Werner Roth of the Public Utility Commission of Texas. “Werner was an invaluable resource to all OMS members throughout our many conversations on resource adequacy over the past year. His expertise and professionalism are a model for all staff to follow and are representative of the many positive qualities David shared with our organization for years,” said Dan Scripps, President of the OMS and Chair of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Incoming OMS Board President Tyler Huebner, Commissioner at the Wisconsin Public Service Commission, added, “I am honored to have the confidence and support of my colleagues to lead the Organization. We must maintain our strong interstate partnership to strengthen the power

811 East Washington Ave., Suite 400 · Madison, WI 53703 · P (515) 243-0742 · F (515) 497-6390
www.misostates.org

grid and advance our strategic priorities with the goal of safe, reliable, and affordable electricity for customers now, and into the future.”

The Organization of MISO States is a not-for-profit, self-governing organization of representatives from each regulatory body with retail jurisdiction over entities participating in MISO and serves as the regional state committee. The purpose of the OMS is to coordinate regulatory oversight among its members, to make recommendations to MISO, the MISO Board of Directors, the Commission, and other relevant government entities and state commissions as appropriate, and to intervene in proceedings before the Commission to express the positions of the OMS member agencies.

Inquiries can be directed to Marcus Hawkins, OMS Executive Director, at 515.207.3550.